19th March 2017

Welcome to worship at Bromley Temple on this YP Celebration Sunday. Today's meetings are being led by Captains Emma and Mark Scott who are the corps officers at Mitcham and Raynes Park Corps. They have thoughtfully prepared meetings that will appeal across the ages, but which will be primarily aimed at speaking to and encouraging our young people. Here at Bromley Temple we are blessed with a fantastic group of young people, and I know that you will support them both today and in the future with your encouragement and prayers.

This morning we will also be privileged to witness the enrolments of Imogen Pringle and Favour Onuorah as Senior Soldiers, and the recognition of Amelia Nunn as an Adherent. Please pray for our young people as they mark this commitment of their lives to Jesus in this significant and important way.

Have a great day at the Army!

Top of the Pew

Our team will be playing St Georges, Bickley, at their Church at 8pm this evening. All supporters welcome!

Our Mission is

TO KNOW JESUS AND TO MAKE HIM KNOWN

by Evangelism, Ministry, Discipleship, Worship and Fellowship

Special Request

On this YP weekend, we have 5 young gentlemen and 2 lovely young ladies who need Prayer Partners. If this is something you would like to do and be a part of, please can you see Janine Mitchell today, who will be only too happy to link you up with one of the children. Just a reminder that we need gentleman prayer partners for the boys and lady prayer partners for the girls.

Switch Update

The Switch Youth Group now meet for their discipleship class every other week in the Light - on a Sunday morning during the meeting. They also take part in monthly social activities to enjoy great fellowship and fun! So far the young people have been bowling and out for a meal together. The next activity will be on Saturday 25 March and will be at Jump Giants (Indoor Trampoline Park). Our young people will also be joining with other youth groups in the division for a day out at Thorpe Park on Saturday 22 April.

The dates for the South London and South East Summer School have now been released and this will be from 23rd - 29th July. Please see Jess and Amy for further details. Thank you to the corps for their continued prayers and support for all of our young people.

Mother's Day – Sunday 26th March

On Mother's Day we will be having an exhibition entitled 'My Mum and Me'. The children will be asked to draw a picture of themselves with their mothers on A4 or A3 size paper. However, it would be lovely to also have photos, drawings or paintings of adult members of the congregation with their mothers (if photos, mount them on A4 paper). Please hand all exhibits to Graham, Kirsten or Gill asap.

In the evening we will have Cafe Church and invite the men of the corps to provide homemade cakes under the heading 'Bromley Bake Off'. There will not be any prizes - other than the satisfaction of having served the mothers/ladies on Mother's Day!

Promoted to Glory

It was with deep sadness that we heard of the Promotion to Glory of Colonel Ron Johnson. Please remember Barbara in your prayers during these days. Funeral arrangements will be communicated as soon as they are finalised.

Wedding Congratulations!

We offer our sincere congratulations to David Finch and Hannah Murphy who are to be married at Eltham Palace on Saturday 1st April. We wish them a very happy wedding day and pray that God will richly bless their future life together.

A Request from Major Isaac Siundu:

I am happy and excited to have been offered a chance to run in this year's London Marathon which takes place on 23rd April 2017. I will be running to support the wonderful work of the Salvation Army in UK and around the world. I would really appreciate the prayerful, moral and financial support of my friends and comrades at Bromley Corps. If you would like to get more information and sponsor me, the link to my fundraising page is:
