16th June 2019

Welcome to Bromley Temple

Today Iain will be leading the morning meeting, with Alison leading tonight's meeting.

This morning we will be considering how doubt can impact our faith and identity as Christian people. We will be focussing on Matthew 3: 13 - 4: 11 where Jesus is tempted in the wilderness. He was led into the wilderness and the three-fold temptation of turning stones into bread, jumping off the Temple and offering false worship is well known Scripture to us all. But before all those temptations, Satan offers Jesus a strike of his identity. 'If you are the Son of God ...'

We've been focussing in recent weeks on 'His Master's Voice' – placing ourselves in the right place and the right circumstances in order to hear him clearly. But here is a reminder – if we need one – that the devil wants to undermine our identity at all times and he will do anything in order to pull us off track in our relationship with God. We often find, after every experience of understanding spiritual truth, a wilderness of contradiction.

This evening, as part of our worship time, Alison will interview Majors Keith and Shona Pike who will share their story with us and bring us a word from Scripture.

Your prayers please

Please continue to support friends and members of the Corps who need our prayer and practical care:

Ruth Gbedemah – Ruth is still a patient in the City Ward at St. Christopher's Hospice, Sydenham and is undergoing various tests and procedures there. Ruth still does not feel able to accept visitors but regular contact is being kept with her through the staff there. A message card from you would mean a lot to her.

Alan Williams – Alan's father, Major Keith Williams, is seriously ill. Do please keep Major Keith and the family in your prayers.

Major Gill Johnson has made good progress this week but still has a little way to go. Your supportive love and prayers and encouraging messages are a big support.

Colonel David Guy who returned home from hospital earlier in the week and is making good progress.

Darren Quigley – There has been some contact with Darren during the week but he is still not in a state of mind where he is prepared to receive help. Your continued prayers please for Darren and others who sleep rough in Bromley along with those who seek to help them.

Majors David & Diane Kinsley – Your continued prayers please for Majors David and Diane as they prepare for their new roles in the Taiwan Region where David will assume the role of Regional Commander whilst Major Diane will take up the role of Regional President for Women's Ministries. Their appointment will be effective from 1st September.
