

Fellowship. Margaret says 'thank you' to all members who made the job a pleasant one and for the gift of a clock. We say our own thanks to Margaret and to Major Kath Crichton for their service in the Fellowship.

Again we say 'farewell' to officer colleagues as Majors J.P. and Karin Ramos leave us for Sweden with Alex. May God bless them in their new responsibilities.

Cartridge (Personal) Giving in support of the Corps

A new supply of envelopes is being prepared for April 2013. Kindly indicate if there is any change to your requirements for envelopes i.e. paying monthly now instead of weekly, or paying by standing order. A form is enclosed to help you in this. If you pay income tax you are encouraged to covenant your giving thereby increasing your gift by 25% at no cost to you. Ast CS David Soal will help you with this.

Corps Family:

We are sorry to know that Major Gill Johnson is unwell, please refer matters of business to the Corps Leaders. We wish Gill a speedy recovery. Major Barbara Webb is now back in PRU hospital as is Ruth Gbedmah, though due to be transferred to Kings College Hospital. Roy Horscroft is now home. It is good to see Bandmaster Geoff and we continue to remember him in our prayers as he works through treatment.
