Family News

Please continue to pray for members of our Corps family who are unwell at this time:

Major Barbara Webb is still in hospital

Major Rosemary Cowdery is still in hospital

Ralph Turner has been admitted to hospital for treatment

Bandmaster Geoff Nunn has made good progress this week.

Sadie Jamieson is now home from hospital.

We need more Volunteers!

The volunteers working in The Light are doing a tremendous work - but we need more help if we are going to open on a Friday and also to cover sickness and holidays. If you could help on a regular or occasional basis please see Florence Jenkins or Gill Johnson.

Highchair

We want to encourage all ages to use The Light and one way to do this is to provide the facilities they need. If anyone has a highchair which is in good condition and no longer required, we wondered if you would be willing to 'donate' it for use in The Light. Please see Florence Jenkins or Gill Johnson if you can help. Thank You!

Welcome to The Salvation Army, Bromley Temple. If this is your first visit please make yourself known to the Welcome Team.

Our worship this morning will be led by Major Brian Slinn. We will be considering Mark 16:7 and the title of the meeting is 'Me! Me!'.

This evening Major Liv Raegevik-Slinn will be leading our worship under the title 'Bound to Christ' and we will be looking at Romans 7:1-6.

We have been pleased to receive the news that Cadets Jonathan & Sarah Pitts will be coming to Bromley for their Summer Placement. We look forward to welcoming them and their two sons, Benjamin & Samuel, on Sunday 21st July and they will be with us until October.

If you are interested in membership of this church please speak to Mike Traher or Martin O'Leary. Salvationists transferring in to the Corps should advise Corps Secretary Jill Richardson.
