Harvest Festival:

Your Harvest Altar Service envelope and letter from the C.O. are available in the foyer. The Y.P. and youth ones are included in their respective parents' envelope. If you are new to the Corps, a visitor, or your name does not appear, there are spare envelopes that can be used. If you are not present or able to contribute at the Altar Service on Sunday 29th, you may subsequently place your envelope in the collection plate or hand it in at the office. Thank you for your support.

Thank You!

Olwyn Holdstock would like to sincerely thank all those who helped to decorate the Hall for this Harvest Celebration, and also those who helped with the refreshments on Saturday evening. It is very much appreciated.

Request from The Light

If you have any CDs of hymns you would like to donate to The Light so they can be played when the Café is open, they would be gratefully received.

29th September 2013

Welcome to The Salvation Army, Bromley Temple on this Harvest Sunday. If this is your first visit please make yourself known to the Welcome Team.

Our worship this morning will be led by Major Brian Slinn and we will be looking at Luke 11:37-54. We continue with our series 'Deckchairs on the Titanic' and today think about 'Nominalism'.

At 3:30pm this afternoon there is a special meeting at the William Booth College to welcome our new General. As General Andre & Commissioner Silvia Cox are soldiers at Bromley Temple, the Songsters have been invited to participate and we are hoping there will be a good representation from the Corps in the congregation. This meeting will replace our normal evening worship.

If you are interested in membership of this church please speak to Mike Traher or Martin O'Leary. Salvationists transferring in to the Corps should advise Corps Secretary Jill Richardson.
