News on funding for Papua New Guinea

When Chris and Neil told the officers responsible for the work at Kainantu that we are raising funds here for the water storage tanks, they wept. Just to let you know that the first amount raised was released at the beginning of August. We will now be arranging for our next One to Fifty Ingathering during November which will also be allocated for this current Project. Thank you for every contribution.

13th October 2013

Welcome to The Salvation Army, Bromley Temple. If this is your first visit please make yourself known to the Welcome Team.

Our worship today is led by the Band. We look forward to their ministry through word and music.

This morning's meeting is entitled 'Walking with God' and we will be considering Luke 15:11-24.

This evening we think about 'Reaching Out' and will look at Mark 5:25-34.

Monthly Prayer Slot

"I fear there are comparatively few Christians who know what prevailing prayer is, because they do not comply with the conditions on which it alone can be offered."

Catherine Booth, "Practical Religion"

If you are interested in membership of this church please speak to Mike Traher or Martin O'Leary. Salvationists transferring in to the Corps should advise Corps Secretary Jill Richardson.

Christmas Greetings!

Due to the overwhelming success of last year, the Christmas Greetings board will once again be available this year from the first Sunday in Advent.

Handmade cards will be available at £5.00 each, for you to purchase, write your greeting to the Corps on and post on the board. Funds raised will be going to 'Carehaven', The Salvation Army's refuge for abused woman and children, in Cape Town, South Africa.

Community Carol Service Choir

Please refer to the letter that Anthony Harris sent out a couple of weeks ago about the Community Carol Service (there are spare copies in the foyer if you didn't get one!) The important thing to note is that the rehearsals for the Christmas Choir continue this Thursday at 8:15pm for 30 minutes. You are then warmly invited to stay for the rest of Songster Practice if you so wish!

Please remember in your prayers all members of our Corps Family who are unwell at this time.
