Parents & Toddlers -Tuesday & Wednesday am (term time)

This is a popular outreach section of the Corps which runs most of the time with a waiting list. Following our Mission Development Day it is more than possible that God is prompting someone to become the leader of this group on Tuesdays or Wednesdays – or both!
We have some excellent helpers, but there are odd days when one of the team is unable to be here. If you would be willing to help occasionally or on a more regular basis, please speak to Major Liv.

The Bandmaster's Testimony

The text of Geoff Nunn's Band Sunday testimony is available on the corps website and Facebook.

News and greetings from the current Project in Papua New Guinea will be available to everyone. Thank you so much for this on-going support.

27th October 2013

Welcome to The Salvation Army, Bromley Temple. If this is your first visit please make yourself known to the Welcome Team.
Our worship today will be led by CSM Ian & Major Judith Payne. The title of our meeting this morning is 'Committed to Mission' and this evening is Café Church with the theme 'Be still and know'.

24/7 Prayer Week

There is a sign-up board in the foyer for the 24/7 prayer week. Please sign up for an hour. During the daytime hours you can visit the hall to spend your hour in prayer, or you can pray at the most convenient place for you. As we create this prayer chain, we believe God will unite us in a very special way. If you have any questions, please talk to Julie or Elizabeth.

Monthly Prayer Slot

"I fear there are comparatively few Christians who know what prevailing prayer is, because they do not comply with the conditions on which it alone can be offered."
Catherine Booth, "Practical Religion"

If you are interested in membership of this church please speak to Mike Traher or Martin O'Leary. Salvationists transferring in to the Corps should advise Corps Secretary Jill Richardson.

Pre-Christmas Fayre, Saturday 9th November, 10.30am – 2.30pm

The Fayre is just a few weeks away and the Songster Brigade hope you will come along to support their fundraising event! There are a variety of stalls and 'The Light' will be open serving refreshments. If you know of a suitable place for displaying a poster or would like a flyer to invite family, friends or neighbours, please see Angela Irving. A huge thank you for the fantastic response in donating items for the Fayre... we now look forward to seeing you on the day. Admission is free and everyone who attends will be sure to receive a warm welcome!

Christmas Greetings!

Due to the overwhelming success of last year, the Christmas Greetings Board will once again be available this year from 30th November. Handmade cards will be available at £5.00 each, for you to purchase, write your greeting to the Corps on and post on the board. For those who prefer to send their greetings one to one, the Christmas Post Box will be available from 24th November and the last day for posting will be 15th December – to allow time for sorting. Cards posted must be for people who attend the Corps and donations can be put in the box or handed to Olive Buckley.

All funds raised will be going to 'Carehaven', The Salvation Army's refuge for abused woman and children, in Cape Town, South Africa.

Franklin Gray is in hospital and would value your prayers at this time.

Lindsay McDougall would like to thank everyone for their prayers, support and every kindness – all of which is aiding her healing. She asks for prayers for all the staff (including several who worship with us here in Bromley) in the new Kings College NHS Foundation Trust, which includes the PRUH, especially during this first 12 months which will present many challenges.
