17th November 2013

This weekend our Songster Brigade is making a return visit to Leicester South Corps. We wish God's blessing on each member and pray that they will be aware of the Holy Spirit using their ministry through word and song.

Today marks the commencement of our Corps Week of Prayer and we would encourage you to get involved in any way you can - sign up to be part of the 24/7 prayer chain, offer to be a guide at the Hall to make visitors feel welcome, attend the midday prayers and encourage your friends and neighbours to join in praying for our community. All activities will be linked in to the special focus of the week.

Our worship today will be led by Major Brian Slinn. This morning the title is 'Bring Buckets!' and we will be considering Isaiah 12:3. This evening we will again be looking at Isaiah 12 under the heading 'Give thanks.....Call on his name....Make known what he has done'.

Please note - there will be a collection for the Philippine Disaster Appeal next Sunday. Please come prepared to give.

Christmas carolling:

Carolling in the High Street starts on Saturday 30th November from 10am to 3.30 pm and will be held for the subsequent Saturdays before Christmas. If you are able to collect for one or two hours, please see Lt. Colonel Gustave Allemand who is organising the collectors. Thank you.

24/7 Prayer Week

There is a sign-up board in the foyer for the 24/7 prayer week. Please sign up for an hour and be part of this prayer chain. If you have any questions, please talk to Julie or Elizabeth.

Can you help?

You will know that the Hall is open from 9am to 9pm each day next week for prayer, and we are looking for facilitators (guides) who would be willing to commit themselves to a two hour slot - to welcome people into the Hall and show them where things are. Majors Brian, Liv or Gill will also be available on the building - so there will always be an officer to refer to if necessary. If you can help, please see Gill Johnson.

Corps Family

Please remember members of our Corps family who are not well or have been bereaved in recent days.

Pam Howard is home from hospital and making good progress.
Olwyn Holdstock has undergone surgery, having broken her leg.

Stuart Greenwood has been bereaved of his father and we will particularly think of the family on Thursday this week, when the funeral will take place at Christ Church, Orpington.

The funeral of Franklin Gray will take place in the Hall at 1pm on Monday 2nd December followed by the Committal at 2:15pm at Elmers End Crematorium. Family flowers only. Donations to the Macmillan Cancer Support Fund.

We congratulate Betty White who has celebrated her 80th birthday this week and Alice & John Gibson who celebrate their 60th Wedding Anniversary on 21st November!

You will be interested to know that Greg Gettens has been nominated for a Royal TV Society Award for his work on the BBC1 Programme 'D-Day: The Last Heroes'.
