Corps Directory

We are in the process of updating the Corps Directory – first of all on the Website and then we hope to produce hard copies in the New Year. Please note that the details on the Website are not accessible to the general public - but only to Corps Members who have requested a password.

If you have not collected the letter which gives your currently held details for checking, please pick it up from the foyer today and return the slip to me as soon as possible. If there are letters left on the table and you can help to deliver them or gain the necessary information please help in this way. Many Thanks! Gill Johnson

8th December 2013

Welcome to The Salvation Army, Bromley Temple on this second Sunday of Advent. If this is your first visit please make yourself known to the Welcome Team.

Our meeting this morning will be led by Major Liv Raegevik-Slinn. The title is 'The Lamp of the Body' and we will be considering Luke 11:33-36.

We look forward to seeing you all at Langley Park School for Boys Theatre at 5pm for the Community Carol Service. There are still some Balcony tickets available (£3 each, under 12s free) and these are available from Major Gill after this morning's meeting or at the door this afternoon. Special thanks to Anthony Harris and CSM Ian Payne for all their hard work towards this event.

Monthly Prayer Slot

*"O holy child of Bethlehem,
Descend to us, we pray,
Cast out our sin, and enter in,
Be born in us today."*

Rotary Club of Bromley Tree of Light – Christmas 2013

The Rotary Club are organising the Tree of Light again this year and full details can be found on the leaflets provided in the foyer.

Christmas Greetings Board:

Cards available from Bev Hunt or Diane Jones at £5. All funds for this and the Corps Christmas Box go to the "Carehaven" refuge for abused women and children, in Cape Town, South Africa. You may also give online through the Corps website.

If you want to know who has opted for these handmade cards (instead of sending individual cards to the Corps) please refer to the Board.

Corps Christmas Post Box: Available until Sunday 15th December. Please hand donation to Olive Buckley.

Philippines Typhoon Appeal

The amount raised to date is £1,341. Thank you so much. Gifts can still be received or sent directly to T.H.Q. through their website "salvationarmy.org.uk".

Donations online by credit or debit card:

We now have the facility to receive donations online at Bromley Corps through our own website at "bromleytemple.org". Initially this was set-up for the Carehaven Christmas project but can also take ordinary donations for Bromley Corps. We thank Commissioner Paul Du Plessis for facilitating this new venture.

Corps Family

Olwyn Holdstock would like to say a very sincere thank you to everyone who made contact following her accident. Your kind interest and support has been much appreciated.

Please remember John Gibson in your prayers as he was admitted to hospital this week.

Yours prayers are asked for a 7 month old little girl who underwent a serious operation yesterday. We also remember the rest of her family who are naturally anxious at this time.

Gill Johnson would like to thank you for all your kind enquiries about her brother, Roddy. He is still in hospital and very poorly, but this last week has shown some small improvements.

Tony Gray would like to say thank you to everyone who supported his family last Monday at Franklin's funeral. Special thanks to the bandsmen for their contribution of music.
