Thank you so much.

One Minute Challenge

How do we tell people about Bromley Temple?

It is known in business that when you meet someone for the first time you have about 45 seconds to 1 minute to sell who & what you are and the reason why that person would invest in your product.

I want to challenge each member of the Corps to sit down and write a one minute statement that tells the 'Bromley Temple' story to a complete outsider – something that will capture the imagination and excitement about the place and make them say 'I want to go there'.

Send your 1 minute challenge (approx 200 words) to me

Prayer Requests from The Light:

- Please pray for Nell, whose mother's funeral was last Tuesday
- Please pray for Karen, niece of Major Barbara Webb, who starts a long course of cancer treatment on Monday

Corps Family

Special prayers are asked for the following members of our Corps:

Betty White is in hospital

Janet Townsend is unwell

John Gibson has been moved to a Care Home

Paul Shattock is in hospital

Major Judith Payne is recovering at home following surgery

Winnie Turner continues to improve at home

Ken Jones has suffered a major stroke and we particularly remember him and his family during these difficult days.

We also think of Major Margaret Meldrum who is living at Avalon at present because unfortunately a tree fell on her house during the bad weather.

Monthly Prayer Slot

*"My path of prayer doesn't always produce instant answers
....The waiting time is the testing time. Prayer helps us to hold on to our faith while we wait."*
