So many happy memories. So grateful for the foundations laid as a child and during my informative years. Also for my children. Julian, Howard and Eppie. My name was Beryl Lowing and I am the daughter of Audrey And Alfred Lowing I know live in Cornwall and would love to hear from anyone who remembers me or my family. Bless you and the Salvation Army. Your friend in Christ. Caroline

I am just about to start some of the distance learning courses run by the Army. I was wondering if there are any local support groups for such students. I am newly come back to Christianity and have a long way to go. I work shifts and am not able to attend most evenings. Regards
