Divisional Meeting Leadership Team

The Division has a list of volunteers who are willing to cover Sunday Meetings when a Corps is without an officer, or where the Officer is off sick, or even occasionally on holiday but have been unable to find meeting cover. We are currently looking for fresh volunteers who would be willing to be added to the list to be contacted at such times of need. If there is anyone who would be willing to help in this way it would be appreciated if you could contact Major Denise McGarvey, the Divisional Director for Evangelism.

Warning!

A few days ago the staff lockers were forced open and cash/credit cards taken from two handbags. The police are thoroughly investigating this, but there are two things that we all need to note:

- 1) Do not keep pin numbers in the same place as your credit cards because if your cards are used fraudulently you may still be liable to pay the bill.
- 2) The Corps is only able to insure 'Army' money. Personal cash/credit cards are a personal responsibility, so please only carry what you need.

Please email all information for this newsletter to

1st June 2014

Welcome to The Salvation Army, Bromley Temple. If this is your first visit please make yourself known to the Welcome Team.

Our meetings today will be led by Captain Keith & Jan Sebbage supported by Majors Mike & Chris Sebbage. The theme for the day is a continuation of last Sunday morning, considering the significance of the Ascension of Jesus into heaven and the response this demands from the church of today.

Throughout these meetings we continue in praise and worship, considering the nature and image of Jesus, giving him his rightful place, and honouring his holy name.

After this evening's meeting the 'Swongsters' will meet in the Hall

We are now able to finalise the details and results of the Arts and Crafts Fair held on Saturday 3rd May. All our set objectives for this occasion were met, with many folks working together as a team, with people coming from within the fellowship circle and many others coming into the hall for the first time resulting in good introductory conversations. Lastly the event raised funding for on-going projects, the total amount raised to date being £1,760.24. Sincere thanks to everyone.
