17th August 2014

Welcome to The Salvation Army, Bromley Temple. If this is your first visit please make yourself known to the Welcome Team.

Our worship today at 9:55am and 6:00pm will be led by our Corps Officers, Lt. Colonels Graham & Kirsten Owen. They write:

'We are now well into the summer holiday period, and we wish everyone going on holiday a really lovely and refreshing time. If you have been away, it's good to see you again, and also pray that you have enjoyed a good holiday. Kirsten and I are taking a few days holiday during the coming week, but will be here next Sunday.

Today we continue our series' looking at the life of Jesus (morning), and the Ten Commandments (evening). This morning we are focusing on Jesus - the teacher, with Luke 10: 25-37, and John 3: 1-17. This evening, Kirsten will be looking at what happened after the Ten Commandments had been given and received - Next Steps.

Have a really good day at the Army!'

A Market Stall in Bromley High Street

We are aiming to have a stall in the market area of Bromley High Street on Saturday 6th September giving us a unique opportunity to promote and support ‘The Big Collection.’ At the same time we will open The Light café for the day which will also be linked to The Big Collection. We are looking for additional help in manning the market stall (for this please make contact with Mary Elvin) also help on this occasion with baking cakes for The Light café (for this please contact Kate Heath or Betty Ackroyd). Please take this great opportunity to become part of this valuable and practical ministry. ‘Together we can make a difference’
