Is life just a gamble?

A weekend is being arranged by Bromley United Churches and Sublime at the Churchill Theatre on Saturday 4th/Sunday 5th October. There will be no evening meeting at the Hall on that Sunday, so please use this opportunity to invite your friends to attend an evangelical event with you!

7th September 2014

Welcome to The Salvation Army, Bromley Temple. If this is your first visit please make yourself known to the Welcome Team.

This weekend sees the official launch of 'The Big Collection 2014'. From the very beginning The Salvation Army has worked to serve the physical AND spiritual needs of others, and this is still as important as ever. Thank you for what you have already done, are doing and will do this year to raise money for the Social Services and Community Programmes within the UK.

To highlight the importance of this 'extra mile' service we will launch and dedicate The Big Collection to God today, reflecting on Scripture principles and advice to help us do it well. This morning under the heading 'You can't handle it alone' we are looking at team work and synergy, taking Moses and his leadership experience as our pattern, and this evening under the heading 'Rowing with two oars' we will examine the important link between faith and action.

Following this evening's meeting, the Swongsters will meet in the Hall

33-4-99 Brass Road Trip at Bromley - Sat 18th October

A Brass ensemble from Bexleyheath featuring Dereck Kane, Andrew Mercer, Simon Gash, Darren Bull and Andrew Pretious will be embarking on a tour of the division providing a 33 minute programme of music at 8 different corps. They will be arriving at Bromley at 12:00 and they hope to raise at least £99 (33-4-99 ... 33 minutes for £99!). I'm sure we can help them raise much more than this, so please make a note in your diary to be in Bromley on Saturday 18th October at 12:00.

Please continue to remember Win Turner, Major Audrey Cocks, Tracy Pugh & Raymond Harrison in your prayers.

Good News!

We want to say congratulations to Tom Norwood who became the Kent U14 County Champion last weekend! He has had a great last six months winning four tournaments and a runner up in another. He also was very privileged to play on the grass at Wimbledon where he got to the last eight of a tough tournament having had to win seven matches to get to that point. The family would like to say thank you to all of those at the corps who encourage him - it's very much appreciated.
