3rd Sunday in Advent

14th December 2014

Welcome to The Salvation Army, Bromley Temple. If this is your first visit please make yourself known to the Welcome Team.

We gather together on this the third Sunday in Advent, and we continue with our thinking around the theme: 'A Song was heard at Christmas'. Today's song is Charles Wesley's anthem: 'Hark! the herald angels sing', which contains the lines which sum up Christmas so well: 'Veiled in flesh, the Godhead see, Hail the incarnate Deity! Pleased as man with man to dwell, Jesus, our Immanuel.'

May today's worship - both here at the hall, and later at Langley Park Boys School - enable us to meet with Jesus who brings on his wings light and life, healing and reconciliation.

Have a good day at the Army,

Graham & Kirsten

Our Mission is

Monthly Prayer Slot

"Lord, change my focus in every area of my life where it needs to move away from me and onto others"

Joyce Meyer, 'Love Out Loud'

50+ Fellowship

Through the medium of this newsletter we would like to say a sincere thank you to Major Chris Sebbage for looking after the 50+ Fellowship during the sabbatical period. The members of the group were delighted to receive the news that Chris & Mike have now agreed to continue with the leadership of the group!

Corps Family

Please continue to remember Tracy Pugh & Jenny Sale in your prayers. Tracy is now home following a further spell in hospital.

Christmas is Coming!

Today is the last day for posting cards in the Corps Post Box. Please remember that cards posted must be for people who attend the Corps. Donations can be put in the box or handed to Olive Buckley.

Corps Christmas Greetings Board

The Corps Christmas Card Board is in the foyer and cards can be bought from Diane Jones or Bev Hunt for £5. The money raised will once again go to Care Haven Home in Cape Town, as they are still in desperate need of funds.

Community Carols in the Garden

We have received an invitation from St Mark's Church to join them for Community Carols in their new gardens from 6pm on Thursday 18th December. Please see poster in foyer for further details.

Christmas Quiz!

Imogen and Fleur are taking part in World Challenge next summer to Mongolia where part of their time will be spent working at an orphanage. They need to raise funds for this venture and have devised a Christmas Quiz competition. The quiz sheet costs £1 and out of the correct entries returned to them, there will be a winner and a prize! Please support if you can. Thank you.
