14th June 2015

This Sunday we welcome to Bromley Temple our divisional leaders, Lieut-Colonels Ray and Angela Irving. Ray and Angela are well known to us, and we look forward to their ministry this morning. We will be looking at two important aspects of the Christian life: knowing Jesus and serving Jesus, using John 2: 1-11 as our Bible base. Monday's Day of Prayer has helped us this past week to focus on our own intimacy with the Lord, and today's worship will further support that. As Henri J. M. Nouwen writes: 'When we are securely rooted in personal intimacy with the source of life, it will be possible to remain flexible without being relativistic, convinced without being rigid, willing to confront without being offensive, gentle and forgiving without being soft, and true witnesses without being manipulative'.

This evening we continue the series 'Jesus Hands and Ours', looking at John 13: 1-17 - servant hands. The corps officers will be supported by the band and songsters as we gather for an evening of praise and reflection.

The Swongsters will then meet in the Hall.

Our Mission is

TO KNOW JESUS AND TO MAKE HIM KNOWN

by Evangelism, Ministry, Discipleship, Worship and Fellowship
