Congress Sunday!

5th July 2015

Welcome to Bromley Temple on this significant day – the culmination of the Boundless International Congress 2015 which has been taking place in London since Wednesday. This Congress marks the 150th Anniversary of the founding of The Salvation Army.

Thanks to the wonders of modern technology, this morning we will be able to join with fellow Salvationists – not only at the O2 Arena but all over the world!

This will be an unusual meeting but I am sure that as we join together the Lord will bless us and inspire us through what we see. May we sense the 'boundless riches of Christ' (Ephesians 3:8) and then take up the challenge to share what we have experienced with the people we meet as we step out into the future.

There will be a March of Witness down The Mall at 3:30pm.

Please note that due to the Congress activities there will be no evening meeting and no Youth Fellowship.

We are hoping to assemble a collection of photographs for the corps website illustrating the International Congress from a Bromley perspective. It could be anything from an individual or group photo to an experience or insight that you feel would be of interest to the corps. Please have your camera or smartphone ready and forward your photos with a brief caption to Paul du Plessis.

Great Sacred Music 150th Birthday of The Salvation Army
St Martin-in-the-Fields Thursday 20th August at 1pm

This event marks the 150th anniversary of the founding of The Salvation Army by William & Catherine Booth and will feature popular hymns and anthems sung by St. Martins Voices (Director, Andrew Earis). Entrance is free – all are welcome!

Corps Family

Please remember Colonels David & Kath Guy in your prayers. David had surgery as planned last week but Kath has also been unwell.

Prayer request from The Light:

Please pray for Robert – his two sons (aged 18 & 12) are going through difficult times & he is not coping very well.
