12th July 2015

Welcome to The Salvation Army, Bromley Temple. If this is your first visit please make yourself known to the Welcome Team.

This morning we will be looking at Luke 14: 25-33, under the heading of 'The Cross, The Tower and the Battle'. Kirsten will be encouraging us to look at how much it costs to be a follower and disciple of our Lord Jesus Christ. Using well known Scripture, we will be challenged once again by the words of Jesus himself: "Suppose one of you wants to build a tower.... Suppose a king is about to go to war...?"

Suppose God is calling you to do this.....? How will you respond, this morning, to that call?

This evening's meeting is in the hands of the Band and Songsters as they present 'Music for a Summer's Evening'. We look forward to being in fellowship with each other as we worship the Lord together with word, music and song.

The Swongsters will then meet in the Hall.

Inspired by Boundless?

Have you been inspired by Boundless or recent enrolments? If you are not yet a member of the Salvation Army you might be interested in exploring your faith and membership options. We will be starting some new classes very soon on Thursday evenings at the Hall. See Michael Traher or Martin O'Leary for more details.

Bromley at Boundless 2015

We are hoping to assemble a collection of photographs for the corps website illustrating the International Congress from a Bromley perspective. It could be anything from an individual or group photo to an experience or insight that you feel would be of interest to the corps. Please forward your photos with a brief caption to Paul du Plessis.

Corps Family

Your ongoing support and prayers are valued by our friends:

Colonel David Guy is now home, following his recent surgery.

Colonel Kath Guy is feeling much better since receiving treatment for an infection.

Vera Robinson, who attends the Home League and Sunday morning meetings, has been in Lauriston House - but hopes to be home by this weekend.

Ralph Turner is awaiting treatment following recent tests.

Commissioners Lalzamlova have been bereaved of a grandson who was born to their son and daughter in law, Lieutenants Timothy and Marni, last week. The little boy was unwell at birth, and passed away just a few days later. We uphold the whole family in our prayers at this time.
