

Another Chief of Staff at Bromley

In the testimony section of the corps website Commissioners Brian and Rosalie Peddle not only share something of how they came to faith in Christ, but also reflect on aspects of their service, gifts and thoughts on the task ahead.

Accommodation needed

Emmy Forsyth-Smith is the daughter of Richard Debonnaire's cousin who, in connection with her Bournemouth University degree course, has been offered a placement with a city law-firm near Blackfriars. For the duration of the placement she will need accommodation for about ten months. As Richard doesn't have any space at home, he's wondering whether someone in the corps might be able to help. Please contact Richard if you might be able to help out, or need more information.

Market Stall in the High Street.

Last year we had a market stall in the High Street as part of The Big Collection initiative. We are aiming to repeat this venture and so are now preparing for Saturday 19th September. The stall will be selling items for The Big Collection but also promoting the ministry of The Salvation Army. Further details to follow.

9th August 2015

Welcome to The Salvation Army, Bromley Temple. If this is your first visit please make yourself known to the Welcome Team.

Following on from last Sunday morning's meeting (John 21), we once again find ourselves on the beach with Jesus and the disciples. This time, we'll be looking at the beginning of the mission of Jesus in Luke 5:1-11, where we see Jesus calling the four fishermen, Simon, Andrew, James and John, into service as disciples (see also Mark 1: 16-20).

May we, like the disciples, hear once again the call of Jesus upon our lives, and like them FOLLOW HIM!

There will be no Youth Fellowship today.

Major Gill Johnson (Associate Officer) is on holiday until 15th August.

Our Mission is

TO KNOW JESUS AND TO MAKE HIM KNOWN
