

Another Chief of Staff at Bromley

In the testimony section of the corps website Commissioners Brian and Rosalie Peddle not only share something of how they came to faith in Christ, but also reflect on aspects of their service, gifts and thoughts on the task ahead. A copy of the article is on the notice board.

Accommodation needed

Emmy Forsyth-Smith is the daughter of Richard Debonnaire's cousin who, in connection with her Bournemouth University degree course, has been offered a placement with a city law-firm near Blackfriars. For the duration of the placement she will need accommodation for about ten months. As Richard doesn't have any space at home, he's wondering whether someone in the corps might be able to help. Please contact Richard if you might be able to help out, or need more information.

Market Stall in the High Street.

Last year we had a market stall in the High Street as part of The Big Collection initiative. We are aiming to repeat this venture and so are now preparing for Saturday 19th September. The stall will be selling items for The Big Collection but also promoting the ministry of The Salvation Army. Further details to follow.

Thanks are once again expressed to the section leaders who provide words for the screen during their contributions to Sunday worship. This is of great value to the many who are now hard of hearing.

On Holiday: Climb every Mountain

Hill walking is a very popular pastime, and a recent BBC programme followed explorer Paul Rose as he walked the Pennine Way which celebrates its 50th anniversary this year. The Pennine Way follows the backbone of England, with its beautiful scenery, harsh weather (at times) and rugged climbs. As we this morning look at the story of Elijah, using the text 1 Kings 19: 8-18, we will make an ascent of Mount Horeb – the mountain of God. We pray that our meeting this morning will be a mountaintop act of worship, where we meet with God and we hear Him speaking plainly to us.

Tracy Pugh will be sworn-in as a Senior Soldier this morning. We pray God's blessing upon her as she makes this commitment to the Lord.

Lieut-Colonels Graham & Kirsten Owen are on holiday 22-28 August.
