31st January 2016

Sunday 31st January! The new year has set off at a pace, and already we're at the end of the first month of 2016. So the Lord's Day gives us the opportunity to slow down, and reflect for a moment. This morning we conclude our little series about people who saw Jesus, with Mark 8:22-38, the healing of the blind man. This evening we'll be taking a look at the territory's new Prayer School resource, with the Songsters supporting.

Tomorrow, Kirsten and I fly off to Germany to lead the Denmark Territory leaders retreat (Monday to Wednesday), after which we'll be spending a few days in Copenhagen visiting family there.

Youth Fellowship will be at the home of Mike & Lisa Lloyd Jones

A weekly prayer on the website

Starting at the beginning of Lent, each week the corps website will carry a 100-word prayer related to a current concern, issue, meeting theme etc. We are calling for volunteers to contribute in much the same way as we do flowers each week.

Further details are available on the website and on a list in the foyer to which to add your name. Alternatively please contact Paul du Plessis. Given the current reach of the website & social media, this provides yet another opportunity to extend our ministry into the wider community.

Committed and Other Giving

It is now possible to arrange standing orders to Bromley Temple Corps online. Details are available on the 'Giving' page of the corps website. A GiftAid Declaration can also be downloaded for completion and returning to the corps treasurer. The page also has a facility for making one-off donations through give.net.

Committed Giving from April

We will soon be ordering cartridge envelopes for the financial year starting in April. Envelopes will be issued to all soldiers and adherents, unless you give by standing order or have indicated otherwise. Please notify the finance team or Major Gill today if there is a change in the way you want to make your committed giving. With thanks.

Offering – 24th January 2016

Cartridges £585.00 Collections £215.07
Thank you for supporting the Lord's work in this way

Knitting Group

Katherine Allemand is hoping to start a knitting group on a Monday evening (7.00-8.30pm, 2nd and 4th week of the month) as a missional activity with the aim of attracting people from outside the corps. However it is also open to those inside the corps. The age will be limited to those in Secondary school and above. It will be advertised as a place to come and knit, chat and share refreshments. Please let Katherine know if you would be willing to come along to support or if you have knitting skills that you would like to pass on. The aim is to start on the 22nd February and it will take place in The Light. Please see or email Katherine at [email in paper copy].

CTCB Lent Course 2016

This is entitled 'The Kingdom in Action', and will be a series of reflective Bible studies in chapters 8 to 10 of Matthew's Gospel, led by Revds Helen Warmington and Andrew McClellan. Over the course of five evening sessions we will explore this challenging section of Jesus' teaching and its relevance to Christians today. Meetings take place in the St John's Church Rooms (entrance through car park at the rear of the church building) from 8 to 9.45pm on Tuesday evenings from 16 February to 15 March. All welcome.

St John's Lent Lecture

This event will be held on Sunday 28th February at 7.30pm at St John's Church, Park Road BR1 3HJ. All are welcome and admission is free. The speaker will be Chris Naylor who is the Executive Director of the Christian international environmental organisation A Rocha. For further information please see the notice board in the foyer.
