Self-Denial Altar Service Sunday 13th March 2016

Welcome to The Salvation Army, Bromley Temple. If this is your first visit please make yourself known to the Welcome Team.

Today is Self-Denial Altar Service Sunday, and once again we have the opportunity to contribute to the Army's International Self-Denial Fund. Our meetings will be led by Commissioners John and Dorita Wainwright, who are soldiers here at Bromley Temple. Whilst presently serving on IHQ, they have also served in both UKT and overseas appointments, and so will be leading our worship from a place of personal experience and wisdom. As the International Secretary for Business Administration, John will have some responsibility for how SD funds will be allocated and used. So our prayers will be with John and Dorita, as they share with us something of the many financial and resourcing needs that the worldwide Army faces at the present time.

Our Scripture text for today will be Ephesians 4.1-16.

At 4pm the Care Group Leaders will be having a meeting in The Light.

Message from Ashley Prodgers- Dublin

Ashley sent this response to the news of our gift of £1,000 from the Bridge, to Dublin:

'We are so grateful for your very generous donation. It will cover the cost of the chairs we need for the prayer room. We also have plans to make a display of The Salvation Army's history in Dublin to inform visitors to our centre about our mission and work today and over the years....thank you for your support and for all your prayers.

God bless. Ashley'
