18th September 2016

Welcome to worship at Bromley Temple. If this is your first visit we welcome you to our fellowship and extend warm Christian greetings to you.

This morning we are moving on to the third word in our 'E' series - ENDURANCE. We'll be using Philippians 2:25-30; 4:18 as our Bible base, supported by 2 Timothy 2:1-13. Endurance is perhaps a less exciting and uplifting word than last Sunday's enthusiasm, but it is nonetheless an important part of the Christian's armoury. Saint Teresa of Avila wrote: Patient endurance attaineth to all things. Winston Churchill expressed it like this: Never give in! Never give in! Never, Never, Never, Never, Never, - in anything great or small, large or petty - never give in except to convictions of honour and good sense.

This evening's meeting will be looking at part 4 of our Prayer School: Obstacles to Prayer. Kirsten will lead us in a time of worship, reflection, sharing and teaching. See you there!

Glass Jars

Joyce & Nick Turpin are making jam, marmalade & chutney in aid of The Big Collection. If you have any spare jam jars with lids that they could use, please hand them in at the office. Thank you!

An Alternative Big Collection

In the Newsletter two weeks ago there was a letter from Major Gill Johnson about 'An Alternative Big Collection'. If you have not had one of these letters, please take a copy from the table in the foyer. If you would like to help in this way, please hand your envelope direct to Gill by next Sunday, 25th September. Many thanks!

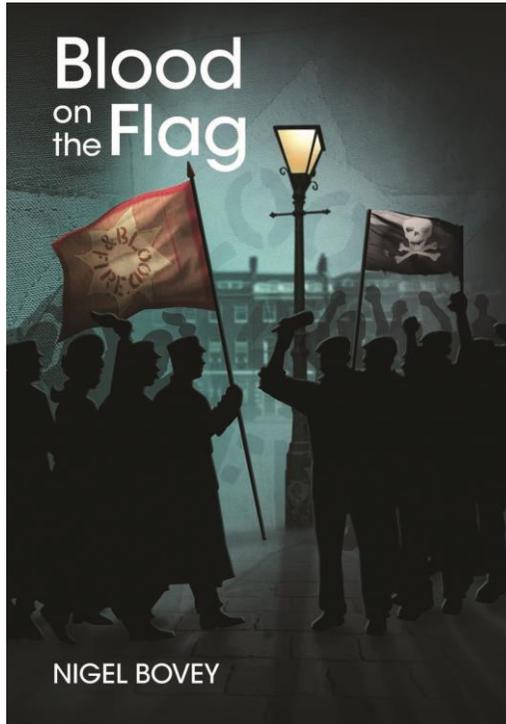

Audio Books on Cassette

If anyone still happens to have a cassette player and enjoys listening to audio books, I have a selection of these in very good condition. They will be available in the foyer; please help yourself.

I also have a portable CD/Cassette/Radio to play them, if anyone would like it. Thanks.

Coffee Morning - Saturday 8th October 10am – 1pm in The Light Café

Hope UK is a Christian alcohol and drug education charity for children and young people working through trained Christian volunteers in communities throughout the UK. Hope UK's promotion weekend is 7/9 October and the hope is that staff, volunteers and supporters around the UK will be engaged in activities to showcase the charity's work and raise much needed funds. Susan Prodgers invites you to come to the Light Cafe on 8th October and enjoy a drink and homemade cakes to help raise funds – and find out more about the charity.

Sunday 2nd October 6pm 'Blood on the Flag'
by Major Nigel Bovey

The theme of this meeting is 'Blood on the Flag: The Army's fight for survival against the Skeleton Army'. Nigel will have copies of his book for sale (and signing) at the Bromley-friendly price of £6.

There was a Skeleton Army in Bromley.

A local newspaper began one report with this:

'It is creditable to the common sense of the Bromley people that the Salvation Army has attracted so few followers of sound mind from our town'.
(Bromley and West Kent Telegraph 18 August 1889)

Come on 2nd October and find out more!
