16th October 2016

Welcome to worship at Bromley Temple. If this is your first visit to the corps, or you are a visitor, we trust that you will receive a good welcome and will enjoy sharing the warmth of the fellowship.

Today's meetings are being led by Majors Liz and Geoff Chape (morning) and the Senior Band (evening). Liz and Geoff transferred to the corps during the summer, following their appointment to THQ roles. Before that they were corps officers at Portsmouth Citadel, a busy worship and community corps in the heart of the city.

The Band will lead this evening's meeting which is under the banner of 'Music with a Message'. We look forward to their ministry, and pray for a good day at the Army.

The final sum raised was £355.55. To my friends who made cakes and marmalade and helped on the day (they know who they are) I say an extra big thank you'.
Sue Prodgers.

A Request from Divisional Headquarters

You may or may not be aware that within the London area The Salvation Army operates three canteen vehicles in support of London Fire Brigade. These vehicles are also on call for British Transport Police & get requested to support other agencies from time to time.

We have groups of volunteers for each of the three vehicles but we are always in need of developing this list of names so that the work does not fall on just a few individuals. If you would like to get involved, there would be the option of helping on a regular basis or you could offer your support occasionally.

If you would like to volunteer or would like further details please speak to Major Gill who will forward your details to DHQ.

Spare tickets available for 'Friendship Matinee' at The Royal Albert Hall

This event takes place on Tuesday 18 October 2016 at 3 pm. The Royal Philharmonic Orchestra will present 'Best of Broadway'. Cost - £5. Please see Mike Sebbage if you are interested.

An Invitation from the Bride & Groom to be!

Andrew Yates and Amy Gellatly would like to let their corps family know that they are welcome to join them to celebrate their wedding. The ceremony will be in the Hall on Saturday 29th October at 12 noon. They also wish to thank you for all your love and support.

Giraffe Trail

As a corps, we are participating in the Giraffe Trail organised by Bromley Rotary during half term week. Come next Sunday morning to see the Giraffe which has been decorated by our own young people!
