6th November 2016

Welcome to Bromley Temple Corps, a fellowship of believers who are seeking to know Jesus better, and to make Jesus better known.

We look forward to a day of praise and worship as we gather together once again. This evening (6pm), General John Larsson will be leading us as we look at 'Those Incredible Booths'. Using a blend of songs written by the Booths themselves (accompanied by the Senior Band) and stories and anecdotes from his book, General Larsson will transport us back to the early days of the Army as it grew and developed.

This morning we continue to reflect on 'What's in the Bible?' This morning Kirsten will lead our thoughts as we look at HISTORY and the story of King Josiah in 2 Kings 22 and 23. Josiah was a young leader, who made a huge difference in the life of the people of Judah. As we have already said, the key issues are: Love the Lord your God, and your neighbour, too. Put God first, and we too can make a difference, just where God places us.

*'Give us a day of wonders, Jehovah bare thine arm,
Pour out thy Holy Spirit, Make known thy healing balm;
Give blessings without number, Supply us from thy store;
Dear Saviour, richly bless us, Baptise us more and more.'*

John Lawley (1859-1922)

Could you sponsor an Advent Calendar for a Toddler?

This year we would like to give each child in the Parent and Toddler Group 'The Real Advent Calendar' - a fair trade chocolate advent calendar with a Christmas story activity book (for more details please see the poster in the foyer). We would like to be able to tell the children that the members of the corps/church care so much about them that they have donated the advent calendars.

The price per calendar is £3.99. Please hand your donation to Melanie Swinfen, Kirsten Owen or Gill Johnson. Thank you.

A message from Josh Hunt:

Hello Everyone! We at Phab Nottingham (the charity I work with in Nottingham for children with disabilities) want to do our first weekend residential camp in the summer with our kids. We are looking to secure a grant which relies on people voting for our cause and the cause with the most votes gets the most money. So I am not asking for your money – just your votes! Please follow the link on our Corps Website to help. Votes need to be registered by 18th November. Many thanks.
