13th November 2016

Welcome to Bromley Temple Corps, a fellowship of believers who are seeking to know Jesus better, and to make Jesus better known.

Today is Remembrance Sunday, a day of deep significance for the whole nation and Commonwealth. The Band will once again be supporting the Civic Service at the Parish Church and Cenotaph. Kirsten will be accompanying the Mayor as Chaplain. The Community Choir are supporting the Remembrance Day service at Kemnal Memorial Park, Chislehurst.

Here in the hall we will continue to reflect on 'What's in the Bible?' It is appropriate that our answer to that is SONGS. We will be looking at verses from two Psalms: 84 and 137 which are songs of longing. Sometimes we don't know how to express our thoughts and feelings, and many can testify to using the Psalms to help us do this. On this Remembrance Day we might want to sing a song of lament, about the way the world has been, as well as its current state. There are many other Psalms that can also help us to do that.

This evening we continue to sing 'songs to the Lord', as we look forward to sharing an hour of Music with a Message with the Songsters.

A message from Josh Hunt:

Hello Everyone! We at Phab Nottingham (the charity I work with in Nottingham for children with disabilities) want to do our first weekend residential camp in the summer with our kids. We are looking to secure a grant which relies on people voting for our cause and the cause with the most votes gets the most money. So I am not asking for your money – just your votes! Please follow the link on our Corps Website to help. Votes need to be registered by 18th November. Many thanks.
