29th January 2017

Welcome to worship at Bromley Temple. If this is your first time here, we hope that you feel the warmth of the welcome and fellowship.

Today is a first time at Bromley for our meeting leaders. This morning we welcome Captains Kevin and Wendy Stanbury. Kevin is one of our Divisional Mission Enablers, and Wendy is a Module Leader at William Booth College. Their theme this morning is 'Living as Children of God' and the Bible base is 1 Peter 2:4-5, 9-10.

This evening we welcome another first-timer to Bromley - Sarah Grace. Sarah will be bringing us her one woman performance 'An Act of Faith' - the learning never stops. We look forward to sharing a good day at the Army with Kevin, Wendy and Sarah.

Kevin has written this week's website prayer:

Father God,

We give thanks that you desire to be in a relationship with us. Help us to believe fully what this means, and give us faith to accept our place before you: children of yours.

We recognize that it is only through the life, death and resurrection of Jesus that this is made possible.

May our worship and love for you reflect the depth of gratitude that your sacrifice demands of us, and may we, through the power of the Holy Spirit, live lives transformed that demonstrate the possibility of new life in you.

Amen

Cartridges: £923.00

Collections (am): £157.14

(pm) Special collection at the United Church Service for the CAP Debt Centre: £753.00

Thank you for supporting the Lord’s work in this way.

Cartridge Envelopes/Standing Orders/Gift Aid:

In view of the new accounting system coming into effect on the 1st April, we need to review and update our records on the above items. A circular was inserted in last week's Corps newsletter, enclosed in a separate envelope. If you were not here last week, further copies are available in the foyer. Please read it carefully and, if there is a change to your own situation, respond as soon as possible. Thank you.

Corps Family

Please continue to pray for:

Major Audrey Cocks and Matthew Baker who are still in hospital
Millie Williams who is very poorly.

L/Cols. Malcolm and Valerie Forster have now moved from Avalon into their new home in Christchurch, near Bournemouth. It has been good to share fellowship with them in recent months here at the corps. They would value our ongoing prayers for healing as, following Valerie's recent surgery, the latest scan has revealed another very small brain tumour.

Monthly Prayer Slot

'Prayer is happy company with God.'

(Clement of Alexandria)

New Book Available

Salvation Books, IHQ, has published Contentment, a collection of poems by Commissioner Keith Banks, priced £4.

If you would like a copy, Major Martin Gossauer has a supply and will be in the foyer following the meeting.

A CD worth waiting for!

A CD of the concert to celebrate the 90th birthday of Major George Whittingham last August is now available. There is a limited supply so if you would like one please see Sam Pringle. A donation of £5 for the CD would be appreciated to help meet production costs.

Congratulations!

As a Corps Family we would like to congratulate Anne Siundu on her promotion to the rank of Major. You will also be interested to know that Anne is a delegate of the current session at the International College for Officers - so we may not see her very often in the next few weeks!

Ingathering of the One to Fifty Boxes

An ingathering and exchange of the One to Fifty Boxes is happening in the foyer throughout the month of January. Thank you again for your continuing support.

Can you help?

Is there anyone who has spare garage space to store some bulky household items i.e. fridge, washing machine etc. for about 8 months for Bethany Payne? If you can help, please contact Ian [mobile number in paper copy]
