26th February 2017

Welcome to Bromley Temple, as we gather together as God's people in praise and prayer, worship and thanksgiving. Last Sunday morning it was a great privilege to be led by General Andre and Commissioner Silvia Cox, and in the evening by Commissioner Birgitte Brekke-Clifton. It was great day full of inspiration, encouragement and challenge. Since then our leaders have jetted off to Mexico, Florida and Moscow respectively, and we pray that they will be a blessing to the salvationists and friends they will meet there in those territories.

This morning we will be picking up our Commitment Sunday theme of HELD TOGETHER IN CHRIST, looking at our journey into Christian maturity using Colossians 1:9-14 as our text. We will also be looking at a further instalment of this year's SD video looking at the Army's work in Ghana.

This evening Captain Jonny Smith will be with us, speaking to us about community involvement and ministry under the heading 'How Can We Sing God's Song in Bromley?' Jonny is part of the Enabling Mission Team at THQ. Both meetings speak into our corps mission statement: To know Jesus, and to make him known.

"He (Jesus Christ) is before all things, and in Him all things hold together." Col.1:17

Our Mission is

TO KNOW JESUS AND TO MAKE HIM KNOWN

Family Fortunes & Talent Night

The YP Corps will be holding a Family Fortunes and Talent Night on Saturday 18th March at 7.00pm as part of the YP weekend celebrations.

We are looking for teams of 5 people to take part in this fun night. The teams can be family members or just a team of 5 people that you have put together.

Please let Janine Mitchell know by Sunday 12th March at the latest if you have a team that would like to take part.

There will be snacks and drinks provided, so please come along and support the Young People and Switch on this special weekend.

Last Sunday

Following the meeting last Sunday morning, General Andre & Commissioner Silvia Cox and the Corps Officers went to the Mayor's Parlour in the Civic Centre where the General & Commissioner signed the Visitors Book and were presented with a gift from the Borough.

A Global Community with Local Impact

In a feature article on the corps website the three Generals - Larsson, Clifton and Cox - reflect on Bromley Temple and its potential as part of: The Whole World Mobilising. If you would like a printed copy please contact the office.
