5th March 2017

Welcome to Bromley Temple on Self-Denial Altar Service Sunday 2017. Our meetings today are being led by visitors from IHQ, Colonels Knud and Lisbeth Welander, who are officers of the Norway Territory. We welcome them to Bromley on this special day.

In 1886, William Booth called Salvationists to give sacrificially, to deny themselves so that they could offer God's love to a hurting world. So as Salvationists we meet together today to give generously to the Self-Denial Appeal, knowing that our sacrificial and loving giving will change the world, because love changes lives. The Founder's passion led the Army to be a movement which understood that God's love was to be offered to others; that people in real despair needed real hope. That real, authentic hope continues to be released today through our love-filled, practical concern.

May God bless us as we obediently lay on the altar 'our lives, our all, this very day'.

Have a blessed day at the Army.

A Message from Graeme Scott:

'I am wondering if there is anyone in the Corps who remembers my Mother, Jen Malyon, who was married to Sid Scott at Bromley Temple on the 25th March 1967. I am looking for people who attended their wedding and perhaps would like to send a greeting to them for their Golden Anniversary that is coming up soon. I have been in contact with Elsie & Brian Walford as Elsie arranged the flowers and Brian played the organ'.

If you would like to send a message, please see Gill Johnson for Graeme's contact details.
