Easter Sunday!

16th April 2017

Welcome to Bromley Temple on this Easter Sunday. As we read in Acts 10:40, 'Three days afterwards, God raised him to life and allowed him to be seen, not by the whole people but only by certain witnesses'. We pray that on this day we might experience for ourselves the presence of our living Lord.

This morning's theme is: Seeing is believing - or is it? Our Bible readings will be Luke 24:1-7 and John 20:19-29, and Kirsten will be leading us in our worship. We will also have the privilege of witnessing Sylvia Baker's re-instatement as a senior soldier. Sylvia has served as a soldier in former years, and since coming to Bromley has felt the Lord prompting her to recommit her life in this way. We pray God's blessing upon her as she takes this step of re-dedication.

This evening's meeting will be an Easter Day evening meditation led by Graham. We'll be thinking about 'Joseph of Arimathea', 'Nicodemus', 'Obstacles to the Tomb' and 'He knows your name'.

"Let no one rob us of our birthright that the Resurrection of Jesus Christ was a real event. He was raised physically to life and we shall be raised physically to that new life in God." George Carey
