Candidates Sunday

7th May 2017

Welcome to Bromley Temple. Today is Candidates Sunday and our leaders are Captain Ashley Proegers and his wife Teya Tikaradze, who are currently serving the Lord and the Army in Dublin, Ireland. Ashley is a 'son' of the corps so will be well known to many. Candidates Sunday is the day on which we focus on God's call to ministry, particularly officer ministry - so we are pleased that Ashley and Teya have accepted our invitation to lead our thinking, praying, worship and reflection on this significant day.

We believe that God calls us all to ministry and leadership because it is crucial that the right people, are in the right place, doing the right things. It is important for us all to be aware of God's leading and prompting in our lives, and that we are obedient to him.

When we choose deliberately to obey him, then, with all his almighty power, he will tax the remotest star and the last grain of sand to assist us. (Oswald Chambers)

Last Friday's 'Night at the Proms'

A big thank you to the band and songsters for all they did to make the 'Night at the Proms' such a great success. I have received so many lovely comments about the evening ... the quality of the music and the variety on offer ... it makes it all worthwhile. Thanks too to our music leaders who gave up so much time in their rehearsals to get music ready and of course to our Proms chorus leader, Dorothy Nancekievill. I won't try to list everyone here, I would miss someone. Thanks also to corps folk who supported the event, I do hope that you had a great night out! Oh... and although the figures are not quite complete, I can tell you that we have raised over £2,200.00 for the Bertha James Day Centre too.

If you would like to see photographs of the event, try this computer link, you may even catch a glimpse of yourself:
