4th June 2017

century to the present day.

Welcome to Bromley Temple on this most special of days: PENTECOST SUNDAY!

Today, as we share in worship, we will be once again celebrating the birth of the Church. Indeed, our celebration this evening will be a Songs of Praise birthday party where we will be looking at songs and readings from the first

In this morning's worship, as we look at verses from Acts 1 and 2, we will remind ourselves that the Holy Spirit gives us the power to live as God wants. Corrie Ten boom writes: 'The question on Pentecost is not whether God is blessing our own plans and programmes but whether we are open to the great opportunities to which his Spirit calls us. Once the Lord said to a faithful evangelist, "You have been working for me with the utmost sincerity, for seven years. All that time I have been waiting for the moment that I could start to work THROUGH you."'

'Unless we are personally committed, the wind of the Spirit cannot blow through us.' (George MacLeod)
