9th July 2017

Welcome to Bromley Temple, a Salvationist fellowship seeking to know Jesus better, and to make him better known. We return to our own hall this Sunday having shared a lovely Founder's Day Retreat at Farringtons School last Sunday. It was a good day of fellowship, worship, fun and information and we are grateful to all who took part and helped the day go smoothly. A big thank you to our own Dorothy Nancekievill (Head of Farringtons) for looking after us so well on the day.

This morning we will be returning to our Commitment Sunday theme, and following up with a look at Micah 6:1-8. The heading is HANDS! FEET! HEART! In Micah's day, the people of the divided kingdom (Judah and Israel) had come to believe that as long as they kept doing the religious stuff, they could live how they liked and God would be OK with it. Micah spoke out about this cosy arrangement, and prophesied that God is a God of justice, and expects people - particularly the rich and powerful - to show justice too. Empty worship is just that - what God requires is that we 'act justly, love mercy and walk humbly with our God.' Micah 6:8.

This evening Majors Lorna and John Smith will be leading the meeting supported by the Community Choir. Come along and be blessed, uplifted and inspired. Have a great day at the Army!
