16th July 2017

Welcome to Bromley Temple.

Today we will be sharing together in two very different ways. In this morning's meeting we will be taking a look at Exodus 20 and the Ten Commandments. Our focus, both this morning and next Sunday morning will be on PEACE. Today: Peace with my family, and next week: Peace with my neighbour. Living God's way requires that we love God with all our heart, soul, mind and strength, and our neighbour as ourselves. Family pressures can sometimes cause stress and anxiety, so we need God in our families just as much as we need Him to intervene in other situations. As the teenager once said to his mum: "Wanting to make the world a better place to live" and "cleaning up my room" are two different things! Or are they.....?

This evening we welcome Lauren Elliott and her friends, as they share a Cabaret for a Summer Sunday Evening. The group, made up of Lauren, Karl Westwood (THQ), Hazel Launn (Bedford Congress Hall) and Nick Hampton (Regent Hall) will sing and play for us. Refreshments will be served during the interval, and the proceeds will go to the Army's Iceland Trek appeal which Mike Harris took part in. Come along for yet another lovely evening at the Army.
