23rd July 2017

Welcome to Bromley Temple, a fellowship of Salvationists and friends who are seeking to know Jesus better, and to make Jesus better known.

This morning we continue our thinking around the Ten Commandments (Exodus 20), and will be looking at the subject of Peace - with my Neighbour. Kirsten will be leading, supported by the Band and Songsters. The best illustration of peace between people should be the worldwide church. Galatians 3:28 says 'there is no difference between Jews and Gentiles, between slaves and free people, between men and women; you are all one in union with Christ Jesus'. If we really demonstrate God's peace, and look out for the welfare of one another, what a powerful picture of God's love that presents to the rest of the world.

This evening we continue the theme by thinking about loving, accepting and encouraging one another.

A prayer: Lord, you taught us that all who come our way are our neighbours. But hear our prayer for those we come in daily contact with, because they live close to us. Help us to be good neighbours to them. Give us the grace to overlook petty annoyances and to build on all that is positive in our relationship, that we may love them as we love ourselves, with genuine forbearance and kindness. For Jesus' sake. Amen. (Bishop Westcott)
