30th July 2017

Welcome to Bromley Temple, a fellowship of Salvationists and friends who are seeking to know Jesus better, and to make Jesus better known.

This morning, worship will be led by one of our own – Major Martin Gossauer. We will be looking at Matthew 21, 28-32 (The parable of the two sons) and the theme is 'What we do is more important than what we say'.

We all know the parable of the prodigal son and his brother, but there is another parable of two sons, less known, that we only find in Matthew's Gospel. A father asks his two sons to go and work today in his vineyard. They both react differently. The good news of this gospel story is that God, in his grace, accepts our answer, be it a 'yes' or a 'no', but the good news is also that we can always come back to our decision and change our attitude.

May God bless each one of us as we meet together to worship Him and enjoy fellowship with each other.

Please remember that there will be no meeting in our Hall tonight – nor for the next three Sunday evenings.

CONNECT Children's Club

From September we will be starting up a Friday evening children's club called 'Connect' for children in the corps and the wider community. These fortnightly sessions will involve lots of fun activities in the front and back hall and will also include trips out each term! It will follow on from the teaching and activities the Army does at Easter and summer camp for our young people.

I am currently putting together a team of volunteers to help run the sessions alongside a leadership team who will be in charge of coordinating Connect. The corps is immensely talented and if anybody wants to run part of a session, or volunteer with Connect in any capacity then please contact me on joshhuntj@gmail.com (or any other way) as we need support from all areas of the corps to make this a real success! Please be on the lookout for more information in the coming months. In the meantime prayers for its success will be appreciated.
