17th September 2017

Welcome to Bromley Temple, a fellowship of salvationists and friends seeking to know Jesus better, and to make Jesus better known.

This morning we will be sharing together around the theme of 'The Family of God', using verses from Colossians 3, and Ephesians 2 & 3. Father David O'Malley, in his book 'Prayers to Close my Day', paraphrases Colossians 3:12 ff like this: 'You are members of God's own family. You are loved and chosen to be close to God in all that happens. So live out that family likeness by being patient, understanding, full of loving kindness and compassion.' The blessing of belonging to God's family, and the challenge of behaving like God's people. During the meeting Elsie Rovery, baby daughter of Rebecca & Thomas, will be dedicated.

This afternoon we will be sharing with the Band and the residents of Bromley & Sheppard's Colleges in a united Songs of Praise. We'll be leading the service through, so come along for a lovely time of fellowship and praise in the quadrangle (weather permitting - pray for a sunny afternoon!).

Have a good day at the Army and in the open-air.
