1st October 2017

Welcome to Bromley Temple, a fellowship of believers and seekers wanting to know Jesus and to make Jesus known. Today is the first Sunday of the month, and you will know that we have been doing a monthly follow-up to this year's Commitment Sunday theme of 'He is before all things, and in Him all things hold together (Col. 1:17).

In recent weeks we have been thinking about spiritual gifts and family life, so this morning's texts of 1 Corinthians 13 and Ephesians 4 draw our thoughts towards love and unity. Ephesians 4 reminds us that we are the body of Christ, and that each part is joined and held together by every supporting ligament, grows and builds itself up in love, as each part does its work (v.16). So this morning we will be thinking about love, diversity and unity - love being the glue that binds us all and everything together.

This evening's meeting will be led by the Songsters, who will have the opportunity to bless us with their music and song, before their weekend visit to Nottingham in two weeks time.

Our Mission is
TO KNOW JESUS AND TO MAKE HIM KNOWN

Thank You Geoff!

As we are aware, Geoff Nunn recently retired as Bandmaster and this was due to be recognised and acknowledged at the Band Weekend in June. However, Geoff's need for surgery and recuperation meant that this had to be postponed until a later date. We are pleased to announce that this recognition will now take place next weekend. All present and past members of the Band who have played under Geoff's leadership (and their spouses) will meet on Saturday evening at 6:30pm for an hour of music, with Geoff being able to lead and conduct some of his favourite pieces. This will be followed by a time of fellowship with light refreshments. The formal recognition of Geoff's retirement will then take place in next Sunday morning's meeting. This will give us all the opportunity to thank Geoff for his faithful service as Bandmaster here at Bromley Temple for more than 17 years.

Prayer Request from The Light:

Please pray for Lynda who is in hospital.

The Big Collection 2017
