25th February 2018

Welcome to Bromley Temple, a fellowship of Salvationists and friends seeking to know Jesus better, and to make Jesus better known.

This morning Kirsten will be leading our worship and thoughts along God's provision in times of both austerity and abundance. We will be looking at various texts from both the Old and New Testaments.

This evening, we will be sharing with teacher and writer Janet Killeen. After earning her master's degree at the University of Kent at Canterbury, Janet taught English and English literature to teenagers for over thirty years. Janet has already published two illustrated children's books and a novel (Recognition), but it's her latest work, 'There is a Season', which has been receiving positive attention from numerous review publications. To find out what inspires Janet Killeen to write, come along this evening. Tristan and Mandy will be leading a short time of worship before Janet shares with us.

Blessed Be Your Name, In the land that is plentiful
Where Your streams of abundance flow - Blessed be Your name.

Blessed Be Your name, When I'm found in the desert place
Though I walk through the wilderness - Blessed Be Your name.

Our Mission is
TO KNOW JESUS AND TO MAKE HIM KNOWN

Leprosy Mission

Some of you may know that I collect used stamps, postcards & foreign/old coins and then post them on to the Leprosy Mission. In the UK they make around £140,000 from sorting and selling these items to collectors around the world. Leprosy is curable so it is just a matter of getting the required treatment to people who need it. Please start saving any of the above and leave them in the 'T' Pigeon hole for me. Thanks Michael Traher.

Women's World Day of Prayer - Friday 2nd March 2018

This will be held at Bromley Methodist Church,
College Road, BR1 1SD at 10:30am
Everyone Welcome

Captain Jan Sebbage!

Last Sunday Major Brian Slinn (DC – East Midlands Division) reinstated Jan Sebbage as an officer. She will join Keith in being a corps officer at Long Eaton.

Congratulations Jan!!

The Great Bromley Bake Off!

On Sunday 11th March we will be celebrating Mother's Day once again. The morning meeting will follow the traditional format, and there will be a Mother's Day Cafe Church meeting in the evening. As we did last year, the Dads of the corps are invited to bake a cake for us to enjoy with our tea and coffee. But this year we'll be increasing the pressure by calling it 'The Great Bromley Bake Off' - and who knows, maybe 'Prue' and 'Paul' will pay us a visit to do some judging. On your marks, get set - BAKE!

Computer Network Upgrade

We are having a Computer Network upgrade at the Hall at the end of this week, so will not be able to use the system for a couple of days. Please make sure all information for the Newsletter is sent to gillian.johnson@salvationarmy.org.uk by 10am on Wednesday so the Newsletter can be printed before the work starts!

Please note:

Major Gill Johnson will be on furlough for one week from Saturday 3rd March.
