4th March 2018

Welcome to The Salvation Army, Bromley Temple. If this is your first visit please make yourself known to the Welcome Team.

Today is Self-Denial Altar Service Sunday, and once again we have the opportunity to contribute to the Army's International Self-Denial Fund. Our meetings will be led by Lieut-Colonel Beverley & Major Brian Slous, who are soldiers here at Bromley Temple. Beverley and Brian are currently serving on IHQ, and so have a broad awareness of the Army's needs throughout the world. Their personal experience and wisdom, together with their heart and passion to see the Army being used by God in these days, will bless us as they lead our worship, and encourage and challenge us through the Word.

There will be an Altar Service in both meetings today. May God bless our offerings, and our personal commitment to serve him just where we are.

'Help us, Lord, each one to be consecrated unto thee;
Make each heart a living stone in a temple all thine own.

Holy Spirit, fill this place with thy pentecostal grace;
Dwell with us, and from this hour manifest thy mighty power.'

The Great Bromley Bake Off!

On Sunday 11th March we will be celebrating Mother's Day once again. The morning meeting will follow the traditional format, and there will be a Mother's Day Cafe Church meeting in the evening. As we did last year, the Dads of the corps are invited to bake a cake for us to enjoy with our tea and coffee. But this year we'll be increasing the pressure by calling it 'The Great Bromley Bake Off' - and who knows, maybe 'Prue' and 'Paul' will pay us a visit to do some judging. On your marks, get set - BAKE!

New Appointments

Our Corps Officers, Lt. Colonels Graham & Kirsten Owen, are retiring in July this year. Last week we were pleased to learn that new officers have been appointed to Bromley. They are Majors Iain and Alison Hudson who are currently serving as Mission Enablers in the Central South Division. They are already known to quite a few people in the Corps - and we all look forward to meeting them in the summer!

We were also delighted to hear that, following his reinstatement as an officer, Major Ian Payne will become the Corps Officer at Chatham. Ian & Judith's farewell will be on 8th April and Ian will take up his appointment in May.

We have been pleased to have Cadet Terry and Julie Hendy and their daughters, Megan & Kayleigh, as part of our corps family while they have been at the William Booth College. Terry will be commissioned as an officer in July and has received news that his appointment will be to Royston.

Please remember our friends in prayer as this time of change.
