15th April 2018

Welcome to Bromley Temple, a fellowship of Salvationists and friends seeking to know Jesus, and to make Him known in the world.

Today we welcome Commissioner Norman Howe to Bromley. Commissioner Norman is well known in the corps, and is currently leading the Wednesday morning Bible studies for April. His key text is: "And how can they hear without someone preaching to them... As it is written, 'How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news.'" Norman's theme for today is, therefore, the Power of Words and how this affects our appreciation and understanding of the Word of God, and how we understand and communicate it in our day and generation.

Commissioner Howe will be leading both meetings. This morning we will be thinking about: Speaking the powerful Word of God, Speaking the Word in Public, and Speaking the Word in Private. This evening we will be focusing on Preaching and its place within The Salvation Army. We thank him for his ministry and leadership here at Bromley both today and during the week.

Lindsay McDougall kindly organises this rota so if you would like further information please speak to her.

A Message from David Finch re The London Marathon

On 22nd April I will be running the London Marathon for The Salvation Army. The money raised this year will be used to support the homeless service - providing a warm shelter for those without somewhere to stay each night, something that we can so easily take for granted in our lives. If you would like to donate, you can visit my website, or cash donations can be given directly to me!
