6th May 2018

Welcome to Bromley Temple, a fellowship of believers and seekers, wanting to know Jesus better and to make Jesus better known.

This morning we are being invited by Kirsten to 'pull up a chair'. A couple of Sundays ago we were invited to look at the chair placed in front of the Holiness Table as a focal point for our forgiveness, following our reflections on the story of David and Bathsheba. This morning we will, as already said, be invited to pull up a chair, this time to help us focus on God. We will be thinking about being God's people, doing God's will, in God's world.

This evening Ira Thomas and friends will be joining with us to lead a time of music and fellowship in an informal and relaxed space. Ira is well known within the Army, particularly as a musician, and we look forward to sharing with her.

*'We gather 'round your mercy seat,
We meet before your throne,
We lift our eyes in prayer to you
And make our story known.
We raise our arms and seek your face,
We bow before you, that your grace
May touch our hearts, invade our souls,
And draw us unto you.'*

Our Mission is

TO KNOW JESUS AND TO MAKE HIM KNOWN

Flowers

We say thank you to Gill Johnson for the flowers on the Holiness Table today, given in loving memory of Colin x

Flower Rota

The flowers on the Holiness Table each Sunday enhance our worship and there are a number of dates still available this year. You can either arrange the flowers yourself or make a donation and someone else will arrange them for you. Lindsay McDougall kindly organises this rota so if you would like further information please speak to her.

Promoted to Glory

It is with great sadness that we heard of the promotion to glory of Millie Williams. Please remember Andy & Barbara Little and other family members in your prayers at this time. The funeral will be held at 3.30pm on Friday 11th May at Kemnal Park Cemetery and will be led by Lt. Colonels Graham & Kirsten Owen. Refreshments will then be served in the Community Hall. At 7pm there will be a Service of Thanksgiving led by Lt. Colonels Ray & Angela Irving.

Corps Family

Colonel David Guy and Valerie Waters have both been admitted to hospital this week.

Janine Mitchell enters hospital for surgery on Wednesday.

Please remember our friends in your prayers

Salvation Army History Books

Major Rita Andrews has a set of Salvation Army History Books (volumes 1-5) available to anyone who would like them. Please see Rita if you are interested.

Statistics!

Corps Secretary, Jill Richardson, is very grateful to the section leaders who have been providing her with the required statistics. The final day for recording was Friday 27th April and Jill would be grateful for the remaining forms asap. Thank You!

Electronic Evangelism

The number of people who 'like' the corps Facebook page has now topped the 600 mark. Thank you to all who have encouraged their Facebook friends to join in this way.

The page provides regular updates of corps activities, giving easy access to the website with the weekly newsletter, reports, prayers, audio recordings, and much more. There is not only a wealth of information, but also provides an opportunity to reach people outside the congregation.

The Facebook page can be accessed from the corps website

Outing to Worthing- Thursday 7th June

Fancy a trip to the Sea side? You are invited to join a lively, 'youthful', and happy crowd of people on a day out to Worthing. The 50+ Fellowship is arranging the trip which will only cost £22 for non-members. This includes coach travel, tip for the driver and a coffee/tea stop at Old Barn Garden Centre on the way down.

We leave Bromley Salvation Army Hall at 9.30am and hope to be back at the Hall by 7.00pm. If you are interested, please book (£5.00 deposit) with Olive Buckley as soon as possible.

Pilates Classes

A new session of ten Pilates Classes commenced on Wednesday 18th April. They are held in the Main Hall and start at 7pm. The cost is £50 for the 10 classes. All ages & all levels of fitness welcome. If you are interested, please see Kate Heath.
