13th May 2018

Today is Candidates Sunday, and we welcome Major Janet Robson (THQ) to Bromley as she leads us in worship and praise. Janet is Territorial Candidates Director, a crucial role within the Territory which enables her to challenge and encourage Salvationists of all ages to discover God's will and purpose for their lives. Whilst Candidates Sunday traditionally focuses on the call to officership, the day inevitably challenges each of us to consider where we stand with the Lord in terms of our own calling.

Frontline mission takes us into a wide variety of situations on a daily basis, and Jesus calls each one of us to faithfully live out his mission wherever we find ourselves. We go out into the world as Jesus' disciples, passionately, confidently and courageously sharing our faith, and then coming together (as we do today) as a creative Christian community of prayer and worship that fully embraces Kingdom values.

The offerings in both meetings (except cartridges) will go to the Territorial Candidates Fund – which supports cadets who have limited financial resources.

Have a great and blessed day at Bromley Temple!

Those with long-ish memories will be saddened to learn that Don Myers was promoted to Glory last Monday. He and his wife Phyllis had moved from their home in Branksome Park to sheltered housing relatively recently. Earlier they had been soldiers and local officers in Bromley for some years but transferred to Boscombe Corps for employment reasons. Further details (and up-to-date contact information for Phyllis & their daughter Helen) are available from Don's sister, Val Walford.

'Thy Kingdom Come'

You are invited to participate in this global call to prayer. The aim is that people will find faith in Christ. During the 11 days of 'Thy Kingdom Come', it is hoped that everyone who participates will deepen their friendship with Jesus, bring others to know Jesus or know him better, and come to know that every aspect of their life is the stuff of prayer.
