1st July 2018

Welcome to Bromley Temple, a fellowship of Salvationists and friends all seeking to know Jesus better and to make Jesus better known.

Today is farewell Sunday for our Corps Officers, Lieut-Colonels Graham and Kirsten Owen, who will be concluding their time at Bromley after four years of leadership, ministry and service here. The meeting this morning will be led by CSM Lynn Nunn. Graham and Kirsten are also entering into retirement later this month, and that will be recognised in this evening's meeting which is being led by Colonels Neil and Chris Webb. The Divisional Commander Major Val Mylechreest will also be present, and will be presenting the retirement certificates.

Today reminds us that God calls us all to service and ministry in his name. For some that means officer service, and for others ministry in the home, office, college, school and amongst the family. The crucial matter is simply that of hearing God's voice, and of being obedient to his ways and purposes.

*'Lord for ourselves; in living power remake us –
Self on the cross and Christ upon the throne,
Past put behind us, for the future take us:
Lord of our lives, to live for Christ alone.'*

Our Mission is
TO KNOW JESUS AND TO MAKE HIM KNOWN

A Message from Janice Goedecke

On behalf of the family I would like to say a very sincere thank you for the donations to the Alzheimer's Society given in memory of my Mum, Major Maureen Kew. The final total raised was £1,021.65 and this will be used to provide essential support for people affected by dementia, and further much-needed research into the cause, care and cure of the disease.

We also want to say how grateful we are for all the messages of love and support we have received as a family – they have helped us greatly.

Impact Group restarts

A new group for young adults aged 18 to 29ish will be starting soon. Hosted at the home of Mike and Arnya Traher, the group will be a mixture of Christian fellowship and discussion. An informal barbecue / pizza evening will be the first meeting in late August. Let Mike or Arnya know if you are interested in coming along.

The Bridge Malachi Project

Thank you to everyone who have recently exchanged One to Fifty Boxes and donated toward financing the current Bridge Project.

We intend supporting the Malachi Project which is an initiative of the Salvation Army in Ilford, to provide accommodation and support for the homeless. John and Naomi Clifton are over-sighting this special work. John has long links with Bromley Corps and really appreciates this commitment.

One to Fifty boxes are available from Mary Elvin. Thank you.
