Let the Morning Bring

"I've wanted to say something by way of gratitude for my progress in recent months. I didn't feel I could do this in public, so I've chosen you."

Major Fred Rainer was speaking at a Men's Breakfast. He agreed that it could be shared more widely, so it is posted on the corps website.

An Update from Roger Baker

In May 2017 the COs kindly agreed, due to the urgent needs of Ukraine, to support their National Day of Prayer by a short time of prayer in a morning meeting. That Day of Prayer has become an annual event. Earlier this year President Poroshenko made the following statement on their national TV:

"Twenty-six years ago" (when communism fell) "you could not have initiated the reforms you see today in Ukraine - it has happened only by the power of prayer. By the power of prayer, we are bringing our nation back to God - even five years ago it would have been impossible to imagine. We would not have been able to do any single step without the power of prayer. We are bringing our nation back to God. I greet and support the Third National Day of Prayer."

PRAISE THE LORD FOR HIS GOODNESS!

A new group for young adults aged 18 to 29ish will be starting soon. Hosted at the home of Mike and Arnya Traher, the group will be a mixture of Christian fellowship and discussion. An informal barbecue / pizza evening will be the first meeting in late August. Let Mike or Arnya know if you are interested in coming along.

The Bridge Malachi Project

Thank you to everyone who have recently exchanged One to Fifty Boxes and donated toward financing the current Bridge Project.

We intend supporting the Malachi Project which is an initiative of the Salvation Army in Ilford, to provide accommodation and support for the homeless. John and Naomi Clifton are over-sighting this special work. John has long links with Bromley Corps and really appreciates this commitment.

One to Fifty boxes are available from Mary Elvin. Thank you.

Empty Jam Jars

Janine Mitchell is collecting empty, clean, glass jars with lids for Summer School this year and needs your help! Please can you recycle your jars into the box in the foyer, rather than into your council recycling box! She will be collecting jars until Sunday 22nd July. All shapes and sizes will be much appreciated.

Thank you for your support.
