Remembrance Sunday

11th November 2018

We take time today to remember those who have given their lives and risk their lives for peace in our world.

As the child is, so shall be the adult
As the adult is, so shall be the family
As the family is, so shall be the nation
As the nation is, so shall be the world.

Almighty God, who longs to bring peace to our families
We remember before you what it has cost to bring peace to our nation.

Almighty God, who seeks to bring healing to our families
We remember before you those who still bear the scars of war.

Almighty God, who has no favourites within our families
We remember before you our longing that hatred should cease across the world

God of Jacob, God of our ancestors, our God - we remember...

And may the God who has chosen us lead us from conflict to peace - in our lives, in our families, in our nation, in our world. Amen

Corps Family

Christine Baxter and Margaret DeMaid are still in hospital. Please continue to remember our friends in your prayers

A message from Commissioner Dora Grinsted:

'I am most thankful and comforted by the lovely cards, letters, emails and phone calls received in recent weeks. Bromley is such a caring corps family, especially at a time like this. It is so much appreciated'.

Special Prayer Request

Please pray for Derek & Ruth De Maid (Ian & Margaret's son & daughter in law). Ruth's sister, Karen, has had a major heart attack.

Christmas Post Box

Please note that the Corps Christmas Post Box will be available in the foyer from Sunday 25th November. The last day for posting will be 9th December - to allow time for sorting and distribution. Please remember that cards put in the box must be for people who attend the Corps and must not have any addresses written on them. Donations - for The Salvation Army's 'Carehaven Women and Children's Refuge' in Cape Town - can be put in the box or handed to Olive Buckley.

Christmas Greetings Board

As in previous years, we will also be having a Christmas Greetings Board in the foyer, where you can put one card to all your friends in the corps (please provide your own card this year). The idea is that the amount you save by not buying multiple cards you donate to 'Carehaven' (see above). Thank you.

Christmas Carolling

The Band will be playing carols to fund raise in Bromley High Street on the four Saturdays in December from 10am till 2.30pm. If you, as a regular attendee, would like to help by standing with a tin/bucket collecting donations from the public, whilst the Band plays, it would be greatly appreciated and I'm sure you will find it very rewarding. You do not have to be a uniformed Salvationist to help with this appeal - and we would welcome your support. If you are able to help in this way, please contact Jill Richardson on (tel number in paper copy and corps directory). Thank you.

The Big Collection 2018

A huge thank you to everyone who was involved in The Big Collection in any way this year. You will be interested to know that the totals raised were as follows:

Door to Door Teams	£5,868.86
The Alternative Big Collection	£3,235.00
Table Top Sales in The Light Stations	£1,635.00
Open Air Meeting Donations	£1,006.91
Quiz Night	£1,163.84
Freepost	£526.00
	£ 94.00
Making a grand total of	£13,529.61

This is an increase of £564.82 on last year – Well done everyone!!

Three Faiths Theological Forum

The next gathering of the above event will be held on the 19th November at 7.15pm at Keston Mosque. We will be looking at Scriptural texts together from each of the three faiths - with the intention to understand and learn from each other. If more information is needed please speak to Iona or Sheila.
