Missionary Appeal Gift Sunday

3rd March 2019

Welcome to worship. Today is our Self-Denial Missionary Appeal Altar Service, where we have the opportunity to partner mission in other territories where The Salvation Army is at work with our financial giving. Our focus in the lead up to today has been the Caribbean territory where we have seen glimpses of work with the blind school, homeless centre, worship in the local corps and heard testimonies from officers, visually impaired pupils and clients from the community services that are based in Kingston, Jamaica.

Our meeting this morning will also include the enrolment of Ella Miles as a Junior Soldier.

Iain will be leading as we give focus on being chosen to be co-workers in God's mission looking at Peter's first letter to the persecuted Christians. May we be willing to share the living hope we have inside us as we live as what can seem at times 'foreigners in a foreign land'. May we truly know that special covenant God has with us his people.

Continuing on the theme for the day will be 'Caribbean Praise' at 6pm, led by Captain Eugenia Dunbar. We will be sharing in a fellowship meal as part of the meeting with home baked Caribbean bread and soup. Come and enjoy fellowship, worship, praise and testimony 'Caribbean style' as we give thanks to God for his presence in our lives.

Commissioner Margaret du Plessis

We are very grateful for the love and respect which has been shown to Margaret in the condolences received in recent days. Responding personally would have been our preference, but hope you will understand that we will be unable to do so.

A video of the funeral is available. Should you wish to view it please contact Paul direct.

While there has been inevitable sadness over these days we have been uplifted by what we have heard, and are filled with joy and gratitude for those who have made contact with us.

Paul, and also Catherine and André

Photo Exhibition at IHQ - 'GOD HAS NO FAVOURITES'

There is a new exhibition at IHQ's Gallery 101 entitled 'GOD HAS NO FAVOURITES'. It is open from 8am to 4pm Monday to Friday until 20th March 2019. Photographer Lauren Forster explores death and the process of dying through photos of her own family, having recently experienced the death of her mother, a Salvation Army officer who served with her husband for many years in Africa. If you are interested in visiting this exhibition, please help yourself to one of the postcard invitations in the foyer.

A Message from Millie Nunn:

I am running The Vitality Big Half marathon on the 10th March on behalf of Macmillan cancer charity and it would be great if people could check out my fundraising page and donate if at all possible. I'll leave a link here for you to have a little look at it:

One to Fifty Box Ingathering

The next ingathering of our One to Fifty Boxes will be on Sunday 17th March and again Sunday 24th March. This funding will be added to our total to be released for the Malachi Project for the homeless at Redbridge. Many thanks to everyone.

Alpha

A reminder that Alpha is on-going every Monday night at 7pm in The Light. A meal is followed by a talk and some discussion. Alpha is open for everybody regardless of whether they don't have any faith or have been attending Church for many years. It's been good to see 5 new people come along and enjoy the course. Please continue to pray for Andy Yates and his team as they lead this through each week.

Advance Notice

We have received notification that the town end of Ethelbert Road is going to be blocked off for a period of 6 – 8 weeks while improvements are made to the Elmfield Road/High Street junction.

There will still be full pedestrian access, but vehicles will need to access the Hall by travelling down Ravensbourne Road, passing the bottom of Ringer's Road and then travelling up Ethelbert Road.

When leaving the Hall, you will be able to travel down Ethelbert Road and then up Ringer's Road and then turn right onto the High Street.

As Ethelbert Road will be two way traffic, some parking bays will be suspended. Bus stops on the lower section of the High Street will also be suspended. We are in communication with the Liaison Officer for Conway and it is anticipated that the work will commence the second week in March. We will communicate further details as we receive them.
